STEWARDS' ADVICE: On Tuesday 13 August 2019, Mr Correy Grenfell confirmed to the RWWA Stewards that ORSON ALLEN has been retired from racing and has been scratched from the National Sprint Final.

On Wednesday 21 August 2019, Trainer Mr Colin Swain scratched the greyhound EBBY LAMAR from the National Sprint final due to a toe injury. Subsequently the RWWA Stewards have received a report from the Angle Park Veterinary Clinic explaining that EBBY LAMAR - has sustained an injury to his third tarsal bone. This will require approximately 6 week rest.

Stewards spoke with the Trainer of STARLIGHT YOYO with regard to the scratching from the National Sprint Final. Mr Stuart explained that the greyhound was fit and well leading up to today and when examining STARLIGHT YOYO this morning, the signs of the greyhound being in season were present, resulting in the scratching.

All of the greyhounds eligible for the National Sprint and Distance Finals, including the reserves were OOCT on Thursday 22 August 2019.

RWWA Stewards and Investigators inspected the vehicles and trailers that transported the greyhounds to Cannington for tonight's meeting. All of the inspected transportation was compliant with the RWWA Vehicle and Trailer policy. No breaches of the rules were committed as a result of the inspections.
