REGULATIONS

- 1. All horses racing at Western Australian race meetings must carry racing colours registered with RWAA.
2. Combinations of colours should be restricted as far as possible to one dark colour with light colours.
3. The use of numerals, letters, words, offensive motifs and use of commercial property including logos or trademarks...
4. The renewal of harness racing colours is three yearly
5. All single colour jacket combinations have been registered
6. The use of a business/company logo (with or without the display of its business name) may be used under the following circumstances:
- That the logo design does not resemble any registered Trade Mark.
- That the logo design is solely associated with a harness racing-related business/company.
- That the business/company must be registered with an active ABN/ACN...
- That any wording is specifically that of the registered Business/Company name.
- That the logo is not offensive, or in breach of standards of good taste...
- That the logo does not breach any Australian laws in relation to advertising.
- That once approved the logo cannot be altered in any way without the prior permission of RWAA.

Any application for the registration of colours using a business/company logo, must contain all documentation required to substantiate the criteria contained in the regulations.

RWWA reserves the right to refuse any application that does not satisfy the specific criteria listed in the Regulations.

All designs/patterns are subject to approval by RWWA
