APPLICATION FOR AN OWNERSHIP INTEREST IN:
A STANDARDBRED BY A MINOR

RWWA Rules of Harness Racing Rule 107, Minimum age of owner, states that unless the Controlling Body approves, a person under the age of 18 years cannot own, lease or otherwise have a legal interest in a horse.

Regulation 107 of RWWA Rules of Harness Racing 2004, Horse Owned by Minor, states:

- (1) RWWA will not approve the issue of a registration assessment certificate for any horse partly owned by a person under the age of 18 years.
- (2) RWWA may approve the issue of a registration assessment certificate for a horse partly owned by a person under the age of 18 years, provided that:
 - a. An undertaking is lodged by a parent or legal guardian accepting full responsibility for such person under 18 years of age; and
 - b. The person under 18 years of age is not first named co-owner or manager of the horse.

This document takes the form of an application to RWWA for a person under the age of 18 years old and currently licensed, to have a legal interest in the below mentioned Standardbred horse. Acceptance of this document is subject to approval by RWWA.
