EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST - PUPS / RACING DOGS AVAILABLE FOR SALE

Throughout the month of May 2021, RWWA's Owners Only brand will be hosting an insight series into greyhound racing ownership – namely Chase the Dream.

Chase The Dream 2021 is a three event series that will encourage and support new owners into the sport of greyhound racing. The series will provide participants with a comprehensive insight from industry experts into responsible greyhound ownership and assist newcomers with connections to industry members.

What we need from Breeders Owners and Trainers

Breeders Owners and Trainers are requested to help compile a catalogue of pups/racing dogs that may be available for sale (full or part shares) for the prospective owners who partake in Chase the Dream series.

Expressions of interest can be directed to David Simonette: davidsimonettegca@gmail.com or 0412 010 724

NORTHAM TRACK UPDATE

Delays have been experienced in the tender process for the Northam remedial works. With the construction industry being very busy at the moment, finding a company to tender for the whole job has been problematic.

Individual companies are being approached and it is expected that they will be able to start the work soon.

However with these delays a return to Northam in May is not achievable.

As soon as return dates are known we will advise all industry members accordingly.

GRADING DAY CHANGE

Please note the Mandurah Tuesday 20 April meeting will be graded a day later in conjunction with the Cannington Wednesday 21 April meeting on Friday 16 April.

The grading office will be open Thursday 15 April from 7:30am to 9:30am only.

FINISH ON LURE RACE MEETINGS

The following upcoming meetings will be scheduled as Finish On Lure meetings:

FROM THE RACING MANAGER

RWWA NOTICE TO GREYHOUND TRAINERS – FEEDING HOME PREPARED DIETS

The feeding of raw meat and other home prepared foods as part of a greyhound's diet is an established practice within the industry.

Trainers should be vigilant in ensuring good quality food is offered to their greyhounds, and they consider any potential contamination risks that exist in feeding home prepared diets.

Food storage and preparation practices should be routinely evaluated by trainers to minimize risk associated with bacterial contamination, which may result in disease through poor food hygiene practices i.e. gastro-intestinal disease (vomiting and diarrhoea).

RWWA Stewards also remind trainers of their responsibility to ensure greyhounds are presented free of prohibited substances on race day (GAR 83).

Trainers should be aware that certain feeding and supplementation practices may expose them to the risk of a positive swab. Feeding raw meat that has not been sold as "fit for human consumption" may pose a medication residue risk, as explained below.

Livestock that are treated with medication shortly before slaughter, may be processed as "unfit for human consumption" and sold on as knackery meat or pet food.

Residues of medications (prohibited substances) may be present in raw pet meat bought directly from pet food producers, such as pet meat abattoirs. Some medications used in livestock may be prohibited substances under the rules of greyhound racing.

For these risks outlined above, RWWA cautions against the feeding of raw meat "unfit for human consumption" to racing greyhounds. The safest raw meat to feed to racing greyhounds is meat that is sold as "fit for human consumption". Meat that is guaranteed from a single, non-livestock protein source such as kangaroo, may also be of lower risk

Other foods that may contain prohibited substances include;

- Bread or baked products containing poppyseed,
- Chocolate, tea, coffee, human health supplements or food products containing caffeine or other stimulants.
- Certain foods are also considered toxic to dogs and trainers are advised to seek veterinary advice should they have any concerns about preparing homemade diets for their greyhounds.

Commercially manufactured good quality dry dog foods are the safest option to feed racing greyhounds.

Further advice may also be sought from the RWWA Veterinary Department

NOTICE TO TRAINERS – NAIL TRIMMING IN GREYHOUNDS

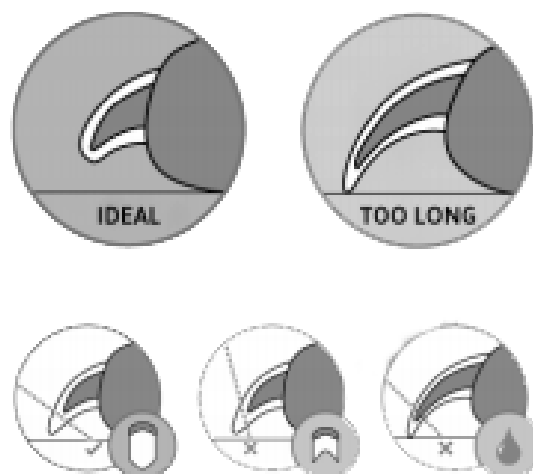

All greyhounds are inspected as part of kennelling procedures at a race-meeting and trainers are advised to assist in this matter by presenting greyhounds 'fit to race'.

RWWA Stewards remind trainers of their obligation to present greyhounds to race with appropriately trimmed toenails.

Preventing overgrowth of toenails will minimise racing injuries associated with nails being long and sharp (e.g. sprung toe, torn toenails and lacerations) and the associated stand-down periods applied to greyhounds with these injuries.

The diagram below gives trainers a guide to appropriate nail trimming.

Trainers are advised to seek veterinary guidance if they require further assistance.

GREYHOUND TRAIN THE TRAINER

Racing and Wagering Western Australia (RWWA) has introduced the Train the Trainer educational video series to provide further information and guidance for greyhound trainers and those considering taking the first step in joining the greyhound industry.

The series provides helpful tips and knowledge from experts, including successful trainers, veterinarians, stewards and canine behavioural specialists – and aims to support trainers with additional information on the care and training of greyhounds in a safe and effective manner.

The video series aims to outline the regulations that must be followed to ensure all greyhound trainers are compliant.

We encourage industry to share the videos with anyone interested in joining the WA greyhound racing industry.

The videos can be viewed on the RWWA website here, with additional videos to be added to the website in the coming weeks.

QUALIFYING TRIALS

All Qualifying Trials are conducted prior to the first race at the respective race meetings, unless otherwise advertised. The number of Qualifying Trials drawn may vary depending on the number of races drawn and the number of spare kennel bays.

Should nomination numbers warrant, consideration may be given to conducting trials on the backup days of Thursday (Mandurah) and Saturday (Cannington) utilizing surplus nominations. Alternatively a stand-alone Qualifying Trial session may be considered.
