TRACK UPDATES

The fencing and track sand work is expected to commence at Northam in early May. All going well it is anticipated that the racing season will start in July.

With the delays to the Northam works the Mandurah track changes project has been put on hold to next year.

CAMPANA TRIAL TRACK

The Campana trial track will reopen for trialling on Tuesday May 4 and will operate in the same way as last year.

These trial sessions are subsidised by RWWA via unused distribution from the current season.

Trial sessions will be:

Tuesdays 8.30am-10.30am

Fridays 9.30am-11.30am

NOMINATION METHODS

The option of using a FAX to send in nominations has been removed. Currently no trainers use this method so there will be no impact in removing the FAX service.

Internet nominations and phone nominations will be the only valid methods for nominations.

GREYHOUND TRAIN THE TRAINER

Racing and Wagering Western Australia (RWWA) has introduced the Train the Trainer educational video series to provide further information and guidance for greyhound trainers and those considering taking the first step in joining the greyhound industry.

This series provides helpful tips and knowledge from experts, including successful trainers, veterinarians, stewards and canine behavioural specialists – and aims to support trainers with additional information on the care and training of greyhounds in a safe and effective manner.

The video series aims to outline the regulations that must be followed to ensure all greyhound trainers are compliant.

We encourage industry to share the videos with anyone interested in joining the WA greyhound racing industry.

The videos can be viewed on the RWWA website here, with additional videos to be added to the website in the coming weeks - <https://bit.ly/3rUccDx>
