RWWA LICENSED PERSONS - USE OF SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

Introduction

This document outlines the expectations of RWWA, and provides guidance, with regards to the use of Social Media by persons who are licensed within the Racing Industry in all three codes of Racing.

Social Media, including blogs, chat rooms, forums, facebook, twitter, youtube and other public media are a popular and ever-changing way for persons to interact with each other and share comment and opinions on issues.

RWWA acknowledges that Social Media is an important medium for persons within the Racing industry to engage with others, voice their opinions and be involved in debate on industry issues

This Policy provides licensed persons with guidance as to the expectations of RWWA where Social Media comment/discussion/content or publication relates to anything in connection with Racing. It is designed to protect the interests of Racing and RWWA and the persons associated with them.

This Policy requires that when using Social Media persons are clear about their responsibilities in regard to the image of Racing, and ensure that any references to Racing are factually correct and accurate and do not breach confidentiality or integrity requirements. Person must show respect for the individuals and groups with

This Policy does not apply to personal use of Social Media by licensed persons where the user makes no reference to Racing or Racing related issues.
