MANDURAH TRACK WORKS UPDATE

The scheduled 2023 Mandurah works are on track with the expected final meeting to be conducted on Sunday 19 March.

It is anticipated that the track won't return to racing until the month of October.

During its shutdown racing will be conducted at Northam on Monday's and Thursday's and at Cannington for the remainder of the days.

More details of the project and more certain time frames will be published in the February edition of The Dogs WA.

PREFERENTIAL BOX DRAW RACES

New Zealand greyhound racing have been trialling races with preferential box draws.

Based on their preliminary trial results all states in Australia are looking at how they will expand the trial onto the mainland.

Here in WA the plan will be to trial it in selected 275m races initially at Cannington.

Once a National consensus has been formed on how it will be implemented further announcements will be made in Kennel Notes in the next month with races likely to be run under these conditions in February.

QUALIFYING TRIALS

All Qualifying Trials are conducted prior to the first race at the respective race meetings, unless otherwise advertised. The number of Qualifying Trials drawn may vary depending on the number of races drawn and the number of spare kennel bays.

Should nomination numbers warrant, consideration may be given to conducting trials on the backup days of Thursday (Mandurah) and Saturday (Cannington) utilizing surplus nominations. Alternatively a stand-alone Qualifying Trial session may be considered.
