RACING AND WAGERING WESTERN AUSTRALIA

HARNESS TRAINERS INSURANCE NOTICE

It is a Racing and Wagering Western Australia (RWWA) requirement that all licensed trainers and drivers in Western Australia have public liability and personal accident insurance.

RWWA currently participates in a national scheme arranged by Harness Racing Australia (HRA) and brokers JLT in Melbourne.

The premium allocation consists of a fee charged to all WA licensed trainers and drivers, and is included with the licence.

Public Liability Insurance

The general purpose of public liability insurance is to provide protection for trainers and drivers against liability arising from injury to a third party (or damage to a third party's property) which was caused by the negligence of the trainer or driver.

Details of the policy include:

- The limit of indemnity is $50 million for Public and Products Liability. A majority of Government bodies and local Councils are now requiring this level of indemnity in cases where trainers lease or have access to land or other property.
- Care, custody and control exposure such as claims made by owners for horses in the trainers' care, custody and control is limited to $2 million.
- There is an excess of $1,000 per claim applicable to this policy.
- This policy requires you to inform the RWWA immediately upon notice of a claim being made against you and under no circumstances should any admission of liability be made at any time.
- The HRA scheme, as with most public liability schemes, does not provide you with cover for claims made against you by any of your relatives who reside with you.

Personal Accident Insurance

Covers all registered trainers and drivers anywhere in the world whilst participating in any recognised and sanctioned activity associated with the sport of harness racing, including necessary travel to and from such activities.

Details of the policy include:

- Weekly benefits following injury. An excess period of 7 days applies.
- Lump sum benefits.
- Non-Medicare medical expenses.
- Limited dental, rehabilitation, and out of pocket expenses.
- Age range of the policy is from 14 to 85 years of age. Reduced benefits apply from age 65.

The HRA has a web site detailing full coverage available under each policy, information on how to make a claim and policy documents. Go to HRA website: www.harness.org.au/hra/hranational.htm and click on National Insurance under General Industry Items.

No other action is necessary and cover is automatically affected once your licence application has been approved by RWWA for the period covered by your licence.

DISCRIMINATION / SEXUAL HARASSMENT STATEMENT

DISCRIMINATION AND SEXUAL HARASSMENT

RWWA wishes to remind all industry participants of their rights and responsibilities with regard to discrimination and sexual harassment.

Discrimination and sexual harassment are unacceptable and unlawful forms of behaviour.

All people have the right to work in an environment that is free of sexual harassment, victimisation and discrimination.

RWWA, as the regulatory body for racing in Western Australia, provides support services, to promote working environments which are free of sexual harassment and discrimination. These services include the following:

- Contact with Industry Representatives
- Availability of course material for trainees and apprentice jockeys
- Contact with independent bodies, e.g. Human Rights and Equal Opportunities Commission, Anti-Discrimination Commission

A range of options exists to ensure all those involved in the industry have at least one channel of complaint with which they feel comfortable.

RWWA will not tolerate sexual harassment and discrimination in the Western Australian racing industry.

Our Stewards will enforce the Rules of Racing and will refer complaints to appropriate authorities which may include the police where appropriate.

WHAT IS DISCRIMINATION?

Discrimination occurs when someone is treated unfairly or badly compared to others, often because they are seen as different. It is against the law to discriminate against people because of:

- Sex (whether male or female)
- Marital or parental status
- Race
- Age
- Impairment (whether physical, intellectual, psychiatric or mental disability, injury or illness, including whether they are HIV+ or use a guide dog, wheelchair or some other remedial device)
- Religion
- Political belief or activity
- Trade union activity
- Lawful sexual activity (whether they are gay, lesbian, heterosexual or bisexual)
- Pregnancy or breastfeeding

It is also against the law to discriminate against a person because they associate with or are related to someone who has any of these attributes or personal characteristics.

Unlike sexual harassment, which is against the law in all circumstances, discrimination is only against the law if it covers one or more of the grounds listed above and it occurs in any of the following areas:

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------|
| • Employment | • Club membership and affairs |
| • Accommodation | • Application forms |
| • Education | • Advertising |
| • Provision of goods and services | • Superannuation and insurance |
| • Access to places and vehicles | • Sport |

Additionally, the Racial Hatred Act covers public acts which are done because of race, colour, national or ethnic origin of a person and are reasonably likely to offend, insult, humiliate or intimidate that person or group.

WHAT IS SEXUAL HARASSMENT?

Sexual harassment is any unwanted, unwelcome or uninvited behaviour of a sexual nature that makes a person feel humiliated, intimidated or offended.

Sexual harassment can take many different forms and may include physical contact, verbal comments, jokes, propositions, the display of offensive material or other behaviour, which creates a sexually hostile working environment.

Examples of sexual harassment include:

- lewd jokes, comments or innuendo
- sexual comments, advances or propositions
- unzipping or undoing attire
- offensive, obscene language or crude gestures
- persistent questions or insinuations about a person's private life

- display of sexist literature
- nude/pornographic pictures (including screensavers)
- offensive, obscene language or crude gestures
- obscene telephone calls, faxes or emails

Sexual harassment can involve behaviour that would also be an offence under the criminal law. For example, physical assault, indecent exposure, sexual assault, stalking or obscene communication.

Sexual harassment is not behaviour that is based on mutual attraction, friendship and respect. If the interaction is consensual, welcome and reciprocated it is not sexual harassment.

COULD DISCRIMINATION OR SEXUAL HARASSMENT AFFECT YOU? YES

Everybody who is engaged in activities related to the Western Australian Racing Industry must be aware of their responsibilities and rights with regard to discrimination, including sexual harassment.

Everybody includes owners; trainers; jockeys; RWWA's employees; contractors; trainees and all other associated persons who are engaged in activities in all areas of the racing industry in Western Australia.

WHAT ARE YOUR RIGHTS?

- Everyone has the right to work in an environment which is free of harassment
- Sexual harassment is against the law
- Sexual harassment is against the Rules of Racing
- Confidential complaint procedures are available

WHAT DOES THE LAW SAY?

Sexual harassment is prohibited in Australia by the Federal Sex Discrimination Act and anti-discrimination laws in all States and Territories. The Sex Discrimination Act prohibits sexual harassment and other forms of discrimination in areas such as employment, the provision of services, education and accommodation.

Sexual harassment is a legally recognised form of sex discrimination. Sexual harassment can be a breach of an employer's common law duty to take reasonable care for the health and safety of employees. It can also be a breach of occupational health and safety legislation.

WHAT ARE THE RULES OF RACING?

Stewards are empowered to investigate misconduct or allegations of misconduct and to lay charges and impose penalties under certain Rules of Racing.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

Are individual persons responsible? YES.

- Persons, including employers, employees and contract workers are personally liable for their own acts of sexual harassment
- A person is personally liable for any act of victimization or discrimination
- A person is personally liable for causing, instructing, inducing, aiding or permitting another to discriminate (including discrimination involving sexual harassment)

Are employers responsible? YES.

- An employer is vicariously liable* for any acts of harassment or discrimination committed by employees or agents in connection with their duties unless "all reasonable steps" were taken by the employer to prevent harassment and discrimination occurring
- Lack of awareness that an employee or agent sexually harassed or discriminated against another will not discharge and employer's vicarious liability*

Vicarious liability is an employer's legal responsibility for wrongs committed by employees in the course of work.

HOW TO MAKE A COMPLAINT

- (f) Whether the person has previously been refused a licence by any licensing authority;*
- (g) Whether or not the person is likely to breach a licence condition;*
- (h) Whether the person has omitted to disclose or has not fully disclosed information that is relevant to an application for licence or renewal;*
- (i) Whether the person has any association with persons or groups that are undesirable to the reputation of the racing industry; and*
- (j) Without limiting any other paragraph, whether the person has failed to pay an amount or such other account for which the person is or was liable for as confirmed by an order of a Court or Magistrate having jurisdiction in such matters.*

Any person found at any time to not be a "fit and proper person" may, in accordance with the relevant Rules of Racing, have any licence or registration held by them at time cancelled or have any application for licence or registration refused.
